

Quailhurst Vineyard Estate PINOT NOIR 2001

Wine Statistics

Elevation – 575-600 feet, southeastern slope

Soil – Jory, ancient volcanic basalt

Grape Type – Pinot Noir

Clones – Pommard, 113

Cases Bottled – 180

quailhurstwines.com

Aged – 14 months in 100% French oak, 50% new

Tasting Notes

Well integrated, crisp, strong oak blend, deep red with a hint of purple. A complex bouquet, earthy, ripe raspberry, medium dry, soft tannins, well balanced while maintaining distinct flavors.

Quailhurst Vineyard Estate is located in Sherwood, OR and is part of the Chehalem Mountains AVA. Owned by Deborah and Dr. Marvin Hausman

