

Quailhurst Vineyard Estate CALETINO RESERVE 2004

Wine Statistics

Elevation – 575-600 feet, southeastern slope

Soil – Jory, ancient volcanic basalt

Grape Type – Pinot Noir

Clones – 777, 113 • Cases Bottled – 300

quailhurstwines.com

Aged – 100% barrel aged 16 months French Oak, 66 % new

Accolades: GOLD MEDAL WINNER – NW Wine Summit

Tasting Notes

Rich garnet color, medium-bodied velvety mouth feel, with flavors of mouth watering red fruit, leaving a silky smooth, clean finish on your palette.

Quailhurst Vineyard Estate is located in Sherwood, OR and is part of the Chehalis Mountains AVA.

Wine Spectator Magazine “91 points”

