

Quailhurst Vineyard Estate NASSAU RESERVE 2003

Wine Statistics

Elevation – 575-600 feet, southeastern slope

Soil – Jory, ancient volcanic basalt

Grape Type – Pinot Noir

Clones – Pommard, 113

Cases Bottled – 479

quailhurstwines.com

Aged – 17 months in 100% French oak, 77% new

Accolades: SILVER MEDAL WINNER – Oregon State Fair

Tasting Notes

Deep plum red in color, a big wine of distinguishing flavors: fruity raspberry, with touches of vanilla. Well developed, maintaining a very pleasing finish.

Quailhurst Vineyard Estate is located in Sherwood, OR and is part of the Chehalem Mountains AVA. Owned by Deborah and Dr. Marvin Hausman

